Tigress Financial Partners Participates As Co-Manager in $2.5 Billion Citibank Bond Issuance

March 22, 2017 12:00 PM EDT

NEW YORK – (Business Wire) - Tigress Financial Partners LLC, a leading women-owned institutional broker-dealer, announced its participation as a co-manager in a $2.5 billion Citibank bond issuance – Citibank, N.A. issued $1.5 billion in 2-year fixed-rate senior notes and $1 billion in 2-year floating-rate senior notes. This transaction marks the first offering from Citibank, N.A. since 2009 and the first under the recently announced bank note program. Investors responded positively to the deal.

As a women-owned broker dealer, Tigress’s participation as a co-manager aligns Citibank’s objective of maintaining funding diversity, as well as identifying and developing new investor relationships.

“We are honored to work with women owned firms, which provided exceptional support and execution for the issuance,” said James Forese, President of Citi and Head of Citi’s Institutional Clients Group. “This transaction clearly illustrates Citi’s strong commitment to diversity and to providing opportunities for women-owned firms.”

“We are proud to be a part of this significant transaction and applaud Citibank’s commitment to diversity and inclusion. Our proprietary research, execution capabilities and unmatched client service, together with our global client base, creates powerful distribution channel for issuer’s like Citi”, said Cynthia DiBartolo, Esq., CEO of Tigress Financial Partners LLC.
